RECITAL BY FLORENCE REYNOLDS
SUNDAY (OCT. 14) AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

Dr. Florence Reynolds, a University of Montana music professor who recently completed a year's sabbatical leave in New England and Europe, will present a violoncello recital at 8 p.m. Sunday (Oct. 14) in the UM Music Recital Hall.

Sunday's program, sponsored by the UM School of Fine Arts and Department of Music, is open to the public without charge.

Reynolds, who joined the UM music faculty in 1953, spent last fall in New England, where she presented recitals and workshops. In the winter and spring she traveled in Europe, observing classes at the Milan (Italy) Conservatory and continuing with her recital work with the assistance of former Missoula pianist Barbara Blegen at educational institutions in Belgium and Austria.

Works to be presented Sunday include "Toccata e Canzona" by Della Ciaja-Silva, "Sonata Op. 5, No. 2" by Beethoven, "Suite IV" by Bach, "Valses nobles et sentimentales" by Schubert-Silva, and "Notturmo" and "Tarantella" by Casella-Silva.

Reynolds will be assisted Sunday by pianist Rudolph Wendt, a UM music professor.
